

Back Issues – Special Offer!

Get any one of these issues FREE with a new subscription to Community Living. Complete the subscription form indicating which issue you would like.

Alternatively, you can receive all four issues for just £15.

Existing subscribers can also request a free issue.

Ring Elinor Harbridge 01643 841101 or email: elinorharbridge@virgin.net

Volume 21 No. 1

- Celebrating 20 years of Community Living
- 'Refreshing Value People' – how can we ensure the new strategy will deliver?
- Parenting still falls into the gap between services
- Caught in a bureaucratic nightmare – Community Living Freedom of Movement campaign
- Partnership boards must make more effort to communicate

Volume 21 No. 2

- All the excitement of Hollywood at Oska Bright's award ceremony
- Communication – getting it right
- How supported accommodation can fall into the benefit trap
- Cutting day services is not modernisation
- Explore community resources before creating your own

Volume 21 No. 3

- The Lone Ranger's parting shots – interview with Rob Greig
- Focus on work – Carving a future in the workplace
- The great funding debate – make sure people's interests are not overlooked
- New web site offers easy access to information about health

Volume 21 No. 4

- Putting people in charge of their day services – how Thurrock closed all its day centres
- Focus on hate crime – keys to good practice
- 'It's time the DH and NHS stop asking what to do and do it' Rob Greig tells Lord Darzi
- Closing the institutions is only the beginning of creating a more caring society – interview with Paul Williams

